Course Guidelines

The 2023 AREC Supervising Broker Course Curriculum is the overall curriculum for this course; however, instructors will have the ability to customize their offerings of the course and should submit course approvals to AREC that adhere to the following guidelines:

Each course should have as its basis the AREC Supervising Broker Course curriculum, while also incorporating a combination of the subject matter provided in the AREC Source Materials (below) and discussion of the questions and/or issues the instructor most commonly encounters in their classes and their respective markets.

AREC Source Materials
- AREC Dismissed Complaints 2019 – 2022
- AREC FAQs
- AREC Newsletters
- 8 and 10 Quick Reference Guide
- Agency Representation Brochure
- Broker Self-Evaluation Guide
- Trust Account Recordkeeping Guide
- Advertising Best Practices Guide
- AREC Licensing/Broker Forms
- AREC Office Visit/Investigator Worksheets

This course will be 6 classroom hours. Principal and Executive Brokers are required to complete this course as part of their annual CE requirement. Associate Brokers can choose whether to attend the required broker course or the required salesperson course. Salespersons may not attend the required broker course, whether for credit or not for credit.
